THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

POEM

read by Graham

Love is a fascinating thing,
You feel it in your bones.
A family's love is deeper still,
A family's love is home.

Sadly no love is free,
Everything in life has a cost,
The price for when we love so deep
Is a grief when that love's lost.

The void it leaves is aching,
The tears in waves will fall,
As we try to wrap our heads around
The love we had being gone.

It is then we must remember
The love hasn't disappeared,
It's in our hearts, it carries on
And will for all our years.

You may have left us in body,
But you never will be far,
You're imprinted on our souls
And your memory lives through ours.

So we try to dry our eyes,
We try to smile and say,
How fortunate we were to love
Those hearts who couldn't stay.

Together again
